

The Village Chapel

Pinehurst, North Carolina

January 28, 2018

Fourth Sunday after Epiphany

Our Mission

*As an interdenominational Christian community, we worship God in spirit and truth;
teach and encourage the Christian faith;
support the spiritual needs of our congregation, and reach out to others with the Gospel of Jesus Christ.*

The Village Chapel

An Enduring Vision of Christian Unity

“It is believed by many that the influence of the Chapel is far reaching and that its message going out Sunday by Sunday to its world congregation, will have great effect in uniting the Christian forces of the land into a fellowship and a brotherhood unit until it can be said again as it was said of old: ‘See how these Christians love one another.’” The Rev’d William B. Hannon, “The Pinehurst Outlook,” November, 1924.

As The Village Chapel begins its second century of worship and service to God, we are emboldened by our founding principles of Christian unity and community service, which were inspired by the words and example of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ; through His death and resurrection; the Great Commission; and His prayer for unity “that we all may be one.”

Located in the center and present at the inception of a community of religious expression - and seeking to be in harmony with the fellowship that has been a basic principle in the Village of Pinehurst - The Village Chapel offers a unique and gracious vision to its members and the community beyond: The actual reality of a church that is thankful for, dependent on, and inspired by the saving grace of Jesus Christ; a church that is welcoming, prayerful, and pre-eminent in the life of our community; and a church that—without regard for religious divisions within the Body of Christ—will always proclaim in thought, word, and deed the Good News that we are all united in Jesus Christ!

“This Chapel will always stand for Christian Unity. Anyone who reads the 17th Chapter of St. John will believe that we are carrying out the desires of Jesus Christ. We believe that there is a deep blessedness in Christian fellowship. In whatever household of faith you were born, whatever creed you now profess, you can come to this sanctuary and feel at home in your Father’s house. Our constant prayers rise to the throne of God for our nation in these days that call for sacrifice, courage and faith. We cordially invite you to worship with us.” The Village Chapel’s welcoming statement, 1924.

If you are visiting this morning, we welcome you to The Village Chapel and hope that you are with us again soon. We encourage you to register your attendance in the red Fellowship Folder found on the middle-aisle side of each pew.

Meditation Doctrine of Predestination

Dr. Ashley N. Smith

I believe in one God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible; and in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God; begotten of his Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God; begotten, not made; being of one substance with the Father; by whom all things were made; who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven, and was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary, and was made man; and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate; he suffered and was buried; and the third day He rose again according to the Scriptures, and ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of the Father; and he shall come again, with glory, to judge both the quick and the dead; whose kingdom shall have no end. And I believe in the Holy Ghost the Lord, and Giver of Life, who proceedeth from the Father and the Son; who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified; who spake by the Prophets. And I believe one holy catholic and Apostolic Church; I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins; and I look for the resurrection of the dead; and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers for the Church and People

Invitation to Communion

Prayer of General Confession (People)

Almighty God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, maker of all things, judge of all men: we acknowledge and bewail our manifold sins and wickedness, which we from time to time, most grievously have committed by thought, word, and deed, against Thy divine Majesty, provoking most justly Thy wrath and indignation against us. We do earnestly repent, and are heartily sorry for these our misdoings. The remembrance of them is grievous unto us, the burden of them is intolerable. Have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us, most merciful Father; for Thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, forgive us all that is past; and grant that we may ever hereafter serve and please Thee in newness of life, to the honor and glory of Thy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Absolution

Comfortable Words

Sursum Corda

Minister: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them up unto the Lord.

Minister: Let us give thanks unto our Lord God.

People: It is meet and right so to do.

Preface (proper prefaces as appointed)

Therefore, with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious Name; evermore praising thee, and saying:

Sanctus (People)

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Hosts, heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Glory be to thee, O Lord Most High. Blessed is He who cometh in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Consecration of the Elements

The Lord's Prayer (People)

The Breaking of the Bread

Prayer of Humble Access (People)

We do not presume to come to this thy Table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in thy manifold and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under thy Table. But thou art the same Lord, whose property is always to have mercy: Grant us therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of thy dear Son Jesus Christ, and to drink his blood, that our sinful bodies may be made clean by his body, and our souls washed through his most precious blood, and that we may evermore dwell in Him, and He in us. Amen.

Holy Communion

Prayer of Thanksgiving (People)

Almighty and everliving God, we most heartily thank thee, for that thou dost vouchsafe to feed us who have duly received these holy mysteries, with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ; and dost assure us thereby of thy favour and goodness towards us; and that we are very members incorporate in the mystical body of thy Son, which is the blessed company of all faithful people; and are also heirs through hope of thy everlasting kingdom, by the merits of his most precious death and passion. And we humbly beseech thee, O heavenly Father, so to assist us with thy grace, that we may continue in that holy fellowship, and do all such good works as thou hast prepared for us to walk in; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against thee in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and what we have left undone. * Psalm 111

Praise the LORD.

I will extol the LORD with all my heart in the council of the upright and in the assembly.

Great are the works of the LORD; they are pondered by all who delight in them.

Glorious and majestic are his deeds, and his righteousness endures forever.

He has caused his wonders to be remembered; the LORD is gracious and compassionate.

He provides food for those who fear him; he remembers his covenant forever.

He has shown his people the power of his works, giving them the lands of other nations.

The works of his hands are faithful and just; all his precepts are trustworthy.

They are established for ever and ever, enacted in faithfulness and uprightness.

He provided redemption for his people; he ordained his covenant forever—holy and awesome is his name.

The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom; all who follow his precepts have good understanding.

To him belongs eternal praise.
