TVC Reaches Out to Western North Carolina

The community response was swift and significant. Loads of supplies came pouring into countless churches and community agencies. Truck beds were filled to overflow, with attached open and closed trailers filled to capacity.

Nathalie Hyler was one of the first to fill her truck and enclosed trailer with supplies collected by TVC and elsewhere to make a delivery directly to a neighborhood in WNC. Mrs. Hyler would go to make numerous deliveries.

Tyler Wiggins – husband of Ms. Heather Wiggins, TVC’s Executive Associate – was also quick to respond with his truck and open trailer for numerous loads taken to First Baptist Church Pinehurst and the Harley Davidson dealership in West End. The FBC Pinehurst delivered the supplies to Marion, NC, where the supplies were distributed to impacted communities.

Stanley Perkins, TVC’s Maintenance Facilitator, has remained available to help unload donated supplies and then load outgoing trucks. Ms. Heather Wiggins, without hesitation, began to contact distribution sites, and assess what supplies were needed. She personally was involved in delivery supplies as well.

TVC’s Board of Trustees recently approved the Outreach Committee’s request to send $20,000 to Baptist on Mission, an organization that is on the ground providing meals and showers, and serving people in need in various other ways, like helping to rebuild homes through construction teams.

There is only one site still receiving supplies to take to WNC, and that is the Harley Davidson dealership in West End (15/501). We will continue to send out eblasts with specific needs as we hear of them. Our Thanksgiving Eve offering will go to support the C.A.R.E. Group Food Drive.

We owe tremendous gratitude to Natalie, Tyler, Stanley, Heather, Board of Trustees, Outreach Committee, and all of you who contributed supplies and made deliveries. The best reflection of our faith in Christ is our outreach to people in need. The people of Appalachia will stay in our prayers for years to come.

With Thanksgiving,

Pastor Ashley

No one could have imagined how devastating and apocalyptic the amount of rain and flooding that was produced from the remnants of Hurricane Helene. The initial reports were unfathomable, and the reality of the carnage was slow to come into focus in our minds and hearts.

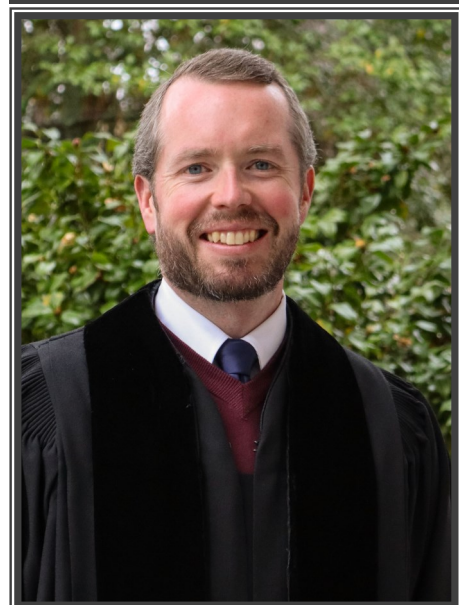

My older brother, Garland, and his wife volunteered in the Swannanoa community. His first-hand eyewitness reports would bring tears to your eyes. Cadaver-finding dogs, people stranded and isolated, missing people who may never be found, all indicative of deep trauma and communal life that will never be the same.

“A Season of Thanksgiving”

A chill in the air, the charred smell of burning leaves, and college football are a few of my favorite things. It just so happens that all of them take place in the Fall, and my thoughts always begin to turn toward Thanksgiving and Christmas. I often tell people that Thanksgiving is my favorite holiday, primarily because Thanksgiving cannot be commercialized! Outside of the sale of turkeys, there is nothing to market or try and sell people because as we all know, that occurs on Black Friday.

Thanksgiving still has a “purity” about it, much like Christmas was for me as a child. As a child, Christmas was a magical season that I looked forward to all year round. It was a time to see family and friends, a time for wonderful Christmas productions at church and in the community, it was a time to eat all my favorite foods, and of course a time to receive gifts.

Unfortunately, I now see another side of Christmas where my wife and I are planning and hosting Christmas parties, I am involved with Christmas productions, cooking and preparing meals, and buying and wrapping gifts. In some ways the magic is lost, and Christmas went from “the most wonderful time of the year” to the “the most hectic time of the year.”

But Thanksgiving is different. It is a day to focus on being thankful to God for His love and grace, and for the blessings we have in the life. Yes, there is a feast, and we are blessed to be able to partake. Yes, there may be football, and we are blessed to be able to watch. Most importantly for me, it is quality time spent with family and friends and a chance to slow down. There is something pure about it, no worrying about whether someone will like your gift or not, or wondering if the children will break all their gifts on the first day.

We need time to slow down and be thankful. We need time to reflect on the blessings of God and how richly we are loved. This is also the perfect opportunity to look forward to Christmas, and the true “meaning of the season.” As Christ is the focus of Christmas, He is also the focus of Thanksgiving, and I would argue Jesus is what gives meaning to our lives every day. Allow the love of Christ to fill you with peace this season, may His loving kindness allow you to breathe deeply, and remember that you are truly and wonderfully made. November is a season of Thanksgiving.

In Christ,

-Trey

Meet the Congregation– Guy & Cheryl Veni

Guy grew up in Brooklyn, NY while Cheryl grew up in Montville Township, NJ. They were living in Budd Lake, NJ prior to their move to Pinehurst. Guy's college years focused on finance and leadership and he obtained a degree in Computer Science in 1975 with a BS later in Business/Finance from the College of Staten Island, NY. He also served 6 years in the US Navy aboard the USS Tutuila in Vietnam, and the USS Randolph and the USS Charleston both at Norfolk, VA. After discharge from the Navy, he held positions at GE Capital, the CIT Group, and Lion Technology. Cheryl worked through high school as a legal secretary and after high school as an executive administrative assistant for Ashland Oil. While working she also attended the County College of Morris in Randolph, NJ.

Guy and Cheryl met in NJ one day when Guy picked his children up at Cheryl's cousin's house in 1990. They began dating and married in 1993. There are two children, Nicholas (Laura) and Donna, both still in NJ. Nicholas and Laura have two children, Gaetano (age 8) and Leona (age 6). Donna has a daughter, Gianna (age 15).

They were interested in moving south and starting a new business preferably between Pinehurst and Charleston. They decided on Pinehurst and have lived here since 2002. They say they have felt very much at home in Pinehurst. They purchased a business called Environmental Drilling Company and expanded it to include Water Treatment Services. They ran it for 16 years and finally sold it to their employees who continue to run the business today.

Both Guy and Cheryl were raised as Catholics, but attended The Village Chapel at the invitation of Tony Tenbraak who brokered the purchase of their business. Rev. Glenn Miller had been instrumental in starting a new service at the chapel starting at 9:30AM and they decided to attend that service. There were few members attending this new service at that time. Now more people come to this service than any other.

They attended The Village Chapel at the invitation of Tony Tenbraak. They are among the first members to attend the 9:30 service when it first began.

Guy and Cheryl attend this service on a regular basis.

They, both, have served on various committees and helped with different functions of the church. Both serve as ushers for the 9:30 service. Cheryl has volunteered on different committees and activities as needed. Guy serves on the Radio Ministry Committee, the Outreach Committee and belongs to the Men's Ministry. He has served on the Board of Trustees twice. He is a board member and distributor for Meals on Wheels. He also offers his time as treasurer of The Tin Whistles and the USS Tutuila Association.

Both have given generously of their time, talents and spiritual support to The Village Chapel in the 22 years they have been members and the church expresses gratitude for their dedication and service.

Meet Our New Members

Bob & Edie Gentile

Keith & Laura Von Zup

Lynda Edwards

MEET OUR NEW MEMBERS- One area of interest to the congregation is learning more about our new members. We post new members each month. If you do not already know them, please seek them out at various church services or events and let them know you are glad they have joined The Village Chapel.

Support Your Church and Community

*"I know that the Lord secures justice for the poor
And upholds the cause of the needy.
Surely the righteous will praise your name
And the upright will live before you."
Psalm 140: 12 - 13*

The Village Chapel has long recognized the need to support the community through a number of organizations in Moore County. The Outreach Committee has worked hard to provide help through grants to those who have demonstrated their need. Those of us on the giving end do not always hear the stories of people on the receiving end. The organizations that step in to help families or individuals may receive some funds from state government, but very often this is not enough. Grant money from The Village Chapel fills this gap. The church does not usually get feedback from individual recipients who benefit from the funds they receive from the church, but the following represents statements from three families who want to share a little of their stories of gratitude.

They all receive services through The Arc of Moore County and their needs vary, but these funds make a difference in their lives. Jillian attends a college program through the week gaining skills that she might not have if this was not available. She needs assistance and a respite worker to accompany her. Another young woman is Allison. Allison's mother is a single working mother and sole caregiver. The service gives her mother respite hours that allow her to take care of tasks to keep her household running. And last (but not least), Kayla is the mother of a daughter who needs help from the First in Families program by helping to fund costly therapeutic necessities to help her daughter succeed. She expresses gratitude for helping to keep this program afloat. She ends her statement by saying "God is so good. He always supplies."

There are many more worthy programs that The Village Chapel supports through the Outreach Committee not to mention that the church must support its wonderful staff and other ministries. The season of pledging and tithing is approaching. Please consider what you can reasonably afford. Pledge what you can afford and please give with a generous heart.

Trail Life Camping Trip

The Trail Life boys took an overnight camping trip to the Inghams property to learn additional outdoor skills and to utilize skills they have learned in trail life.

This outing also helped them prepare for more challenging outdoor trips in the future and to hone their outdoor skills so that they can share the knowledge with other Trail men as they become mentors within the troop and community.

Angel Tree

This year the Village Chapel adopted 151 people! We are now in the process of getting these families sponsored. But, we need your help!

Please consider making the Angel Tree part of your family's Christmas traditions. It is a wonderful way to share your blessings with others and make Christmas special for a family in need.

The Angel Tree not only brings joy to the recipients, but it also brings joy to the many volunteers who have made shopping, wrapping and distributing the gifts part of their Christmas traditions. We enjoy the Christmas music, light refreshments and the company of other members filled with the Christmas spirit as we wrap and organize the gifts!

Your cash donations are also needed to cover the cost of the Food Lion gift cards and the Bibles that will be given to all the families in addition to the gifts purchased from their Wish Lists. Please adopt a single person or a family or if you prefer to send in a donation, we will do the shopping.

To those of you who have participated in Angel Tree in the past, we humbly thank you. If donating to Angel Tree is new to you, we welcome your participation. All of our many blessings are from the grace of God. Thank you for being a blessing to those in need.
