

The Chapel Herald

*Village Chapel family,
Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.*

2 Corinthians 1:2

It's quite surreal to walk through Heritage Hall and imagine it filled with children and youth. I've actually seen the hall's activity room teaming with students when we opened the hall to the community at Live After 5, on August 12. And to think that God blessed us with such an excellent space for discipleship, begs the question, what is next? What is the master plan for Heritage Hall going forward?

Matthew 28:18-20 is Christ's Great Commission to the Body of Christ to make disciples. This is the Master's plan for Heritage Hall. Making disciples obviously means teaching the students about Jesus, His life, His ministry, His mission.

Some of the ways we plan to disciple our students – in addition to being a supportive resource for our Chapel's families, as partners in the discipleship-making lifestyle – is through Children's Sermons, Sunday School, Youth Sundays, Vacation Bible School, and Confirmation classes.

We will also prayerfully seek creative ways to make disciples, remaining open to the endless possibilities that our new space will allow. The next priority is to share Heritage Hall with the community. We will constantly present Heritage Hall as the community's hall. Parents' Night Out is a good example of making the hall available to community parents, who don't yet know The Village Chapel is the new church home. To host it coincidentally during the Village's music event proved to be fortuitous.

Vacation Bible School, Fall Festival (Trunk-or-Treat), Easter Egg Hunt, have all been productive in evangelizing new families; I'm honestly thinking of families in my mind who joined to the Chapel through an initial community outreach.

Still another priority is to host events – that are not necessarily Chapel sponsored – that will attract attention to our campus location and ministries. A good example of that is the National League of Junior Cotillion. Mrs. Sonja Lawrence is a huge TVC supporter and having her students use our facilities is a significant symbiotic relationship (sorry, Discovery Channel is on in the background).

Again, we will prayerfully consider creative ways to partner with organizations of the same ilk, to further the cause of the Gospel and expand the Kingdom in our village. From a summer tutoring ministry to three-on-three basketball tournaments (with opening prayers and a closing devotion, of course), the sky is the limit.

A word about the MarComm committee is warranted. From the efforts of our most talented, Steve McKenzie, to the eager and highly capable men and women who call themselves "MarComm," the existence of Heritage Hall is being elevated by the efforts of these folks, who continuously think of ways to promote the numerous possibilities for the hall, (Continued on page 7...)

Meet the Congregation

Cam and Janice met in South Korea when both were stationed there while serving in the United States Army. Janice grew up and went to school in Guam attending the University of Guam. Cam is a native of Mississippi and graduated from Mississippi State University. Both were commissioned as Second Lieutenants in the US Army upon graduation.

Korea was their first assignment on active duty following the Officer Basic Course and other military training. The tour in Korea was only one year and so their courtship was short. They decided to marry before the end of their tour in order to improve their chances of a follow-on assignment in the same state. By God's grace they both received orders to Ft. Bragg, NC. Their first child was born in their first year at Ft. Bragg. In the short time Cam and Janice were married and still adjusting to parenthood, they simultaneously received orders for training in two different countries

The Village Chapel's interdenominational focus appealed to them. They became members four years ago after attending services on a regular basis for seven years.

(Panama and Honduras) during the same period. Everything to this point was expected as a dual military family, but not this soon. They missed two months of precious development in Lamar's first year of life.

The decision for Janice to leave the Army was simple. They never looked back. Their family was made complete five years later with the birth of their daughter, Morgan. Campbell loves to tell the story that he was deployed when he learned they were expecting Morgan, through a letter, not email or text. He missed the entire pregnancy and the birth by two weeks.

After thirty years of faithful service and multiple deployments Campbell retired as a Colonel. Naturally, after sixteen years on Ft. Bragg and having visited Pinehurst, he and Janice thought to extend their roots one county over. Their son, Lamar, who attended NC State University is an engineer officer in the Army stationed in Hawaii. Lamar married his high school sweetheart, also a NC State grad. They have two sons, Campbell (age 10) and John Parker (8). Their daughter, Morgan, graduated from the University of Mississippi (Ole Miss) and now lives in Charlotte.

Janice was raised Catholic and Cam has an Episcopalian background, so The Village Chapel's interdenominational focus appealed to them. They became members four years ago after attending services on a regular basis for seven years.

They enjoy living in the Pinewild neighborhood with their Airdale terrier, Ryder. Cam stays busy working full-time with a large defense contractor in Fayetteville. Janice has volunteered in community and church organizations over the years and continues to do so.

New Members

BYRON AND POLLY GRANTHAM

The Granthams moved here from Hickory, NC; they have been in the area for about 8 years. They enjoy their family who also live in the area and especially their grandchildren. They also enjoy family-time at the beach; volunteering and participation in church activities; although Byron is no longer an active golfer, they both enjoy being in a golf-related community

Prior to retirement, Polly was employed in health care, and Byron was in sales and they attended a Methodist Church.

JOSEPH AND ANNE DEROSA

Originally from New York, Joseph and Anne, relocated to Pinehurst nine years ago. They lived in Florida for six years after retiring in 2005. While there, they helped care for an elderly parent and assisted a family member who was starting a new business.

Prior to joining The Village Chapel, both Joe and Anne were of the Catholic faith.

They both play golf and are happy living in the Pinehurst #6 community. Both Joe and Anne are retired educators. Joe was a high school English/Reading teacher, chair of the English Department, and a coach at the high school and community college levels.

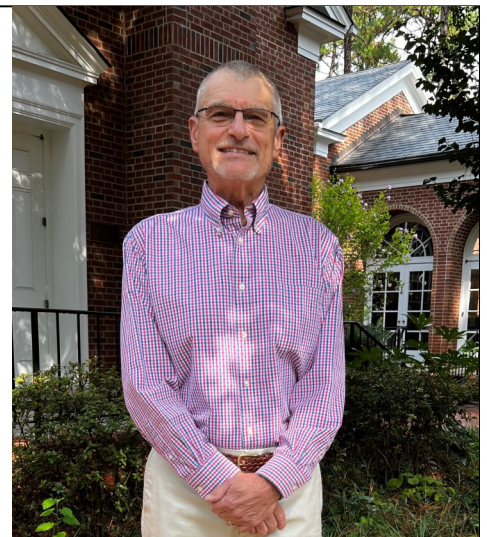

Anne, with a love for children, taught Kindergarten and served as a mentor for new teachers.

MIKE POPLIN

Mike Poplin retired & moved to Ellerbe after raising family in Winston-Salem. He attended Presbyterian and Methodist churches in the past; transferred membership from Presbyterian PCA to join TVC He currently lives in Pinehurst Trace.

Mike enjoys all things outside - cycling, swimming, running, and gardening & music; also, volunteering and Bible study. He's retired from Vulcan Materials Company; married (Julie) with three adult children & four grandchildren.

From the Director of Music

What a summer in the life of our Chapel! We celebrated the ministry of our out-going Senior Pastor John Jacobs, worshipped intimately in Chapel Hall for a month, and watched as the finishing touches were put on Heritage Hall. These events and other activities have been successful largely due to the efforts of many of our lay leaders and it is a blessing to serve with and for them. As we enter into a new season, I am excited to preview some of the musical opportunities in store for our Chapel.

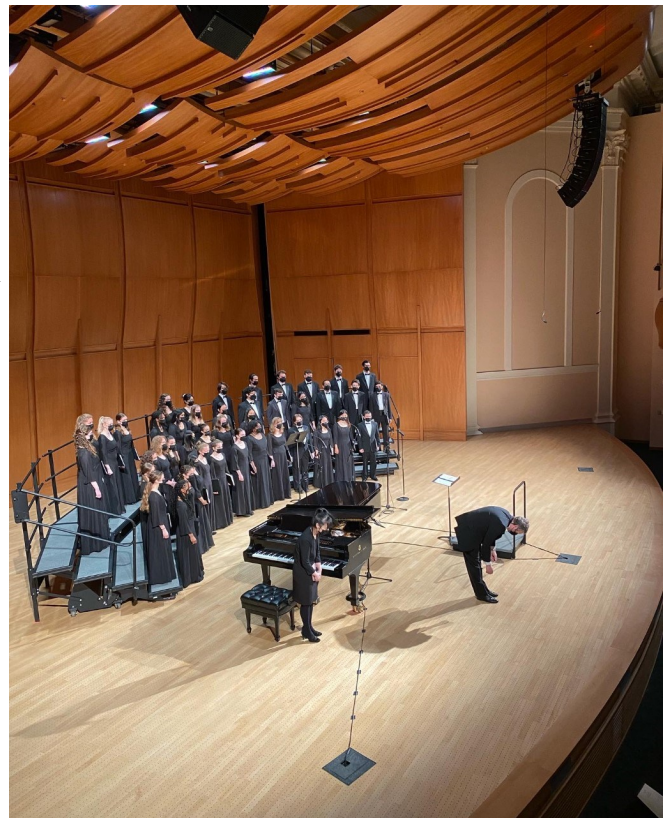

Our Chapel Choir resumed rehearsals at the end of August after a period of rest and rejuvenation over the summer. Rehearsals began earlier than usual as the Chapel Choir prepares for the Heritage Hall Dedication Service on September 18, an historic occasion not to be forgotten in the life of this Chapel. Preparations for our Christmas offerings as well as a February concert will begin in earnest very soon. As always, new choir members are always welcome. Inquiries can be sent to me at stephen@tvcpinehurst.com. Our children's choir also resumed rehearsals recently and will be presenting musical offerings at our Dedication service and other upcoming unity services.

Our Music Series opens on September 30, 7:00 pm with an a cappella choral concert featuring some of our Chapel singers. This concert will feature a brief overview of the many choral compositions for a cappella voices. The Duke University Chorale will make its annual visit to Pinehurst on Sunday, October 30 at 4pm. Our community is always treated to a special evening of music-making by such talented and dedicated young people. More information will be available on the remainder of our concert series in the coming months.

One of the exciting summer projects has been the reorganization and relocation of our music library to the space across from the choir room. For many years, the choir's music has been stored in file cabinets, making it difficult sometimes to locate certain things. As the completion of Heritage Hall has offered us new storage space, we were offered the opportunity to transition the former Sunday school/storage space into a music library. In addition to choral/orchestral/organ music, our library also includes a collection of hymnals from various traditions, especially for us as an interdenominational community. While much has been accomplished in making this shift, the delays in the Heritage Hall completion as well as some of our new filing boxes being on backorder, the new music library continues to be a work in progress. Please be on the look out for updates in the coming months in the Herald for completed pictures of our library as well as updates to the choir room. As always, anyone is welcome to drop by for a tour/overview of our library offerings.

On behalf of everyone involved in our music program, we invite you to take advantage of the many opportunities available to you and your family.

MISSION STATEMENT OF THE VILLAGE CHAPEL: "As an interdenominational Christian community, we worship God in spirit and truth; teach and encourage the Christian faith; support the spiritual needs of our congregation, and reach out to others with the Gospel of Jesus Christ."

MISSION STATEMENT OF YOUR OUTREACH COMMITTEE: "Prayerfully and earnestly distribute budgeted funds of the Village Chapel to vetted entities through rational giving, while encouraging congregational participation with organizations we support."

(Continued from front page...) and who act as a herald (pun intended) for all Chapel events. Believe you me, we can all be grateful for their work.

I want to say, "Thank you!" Thank you for your support and your hilarious giving (literal meaning of the Greek word for "cheerful") to make Heritage Hall a reality.

The Dedication Service will be one for the ages, and I hope you will be present. Parents...we need you. No other church has better, more loving, and more committed parents than the Chapel. Heritage Hall will never reach its fullest potential without you and your family. Help us, help you!

All of us, are the Master's plan for Heritage Hall.

Yours in Christ,

~Pastor Ashley

Youth Enjoyed a Back To School Celebration at Carowinds

Farewell

A woman of quiet elegance and grace, Diana Meyer lived her Christian faith through her service to her family, Church, and community. A 1959 graduate of UNC, Chapel Hill, with a B.A. in English, Diana raised three children, Donnell G., Elizabeth, and Robert P. Adams. She taught at Pinehurst High School, served on the Board of the Thurston Arthritis Foundation at UNC Chapel Hill (completing her service with her husband, Charles Meyer, as President of the Foundation Board), and founded the first Lupus support group in Moore County.

Diana expressed her greatest joy and pride in service to The Village Chapel, where she was a member since 2008. At TVC Diana served as head of Community Donations, and, with her husband Charles, was a regular attendee at classes taught by Pastor Emeritus John Jacobs, most recently his classes about the writings of C.S. Lewis and of Dorothy Sayers.

Diana will be remembered as an example of strength through faith, leaving behind a loving family, friends, and countless recipients of her gift of service.

Baptism- Eleanor Jane Couzens

August 21, parents Jack and Allison Couzens celebrated the baptism of their daughter, Eleanor Jane.

We at The Village Chapel welcome her to the body of Christ.

The Women of the Chapel want to thank everyone who donated time, talent, materials, prayers and energy to make our blanket making project a big success!

Your efforts have blessed a lot of people! We are looking forward to starting back soon. Thanks again!
